

Foundation Scholarship Requirements

The Lebanon Valley Chamber Foundation is seeking applicants for its 2023 scholarships. The Foundation exists to create a better-prepared and more educated workforce and to help develop tomorrow's leaders in the Lebanon Valley. Applicants must currently attend one of Lebanon County's public or private schools or the Lebanon County Career and Technology Center. In 2023, the Lebanon Valley Chamber Foundation will present up to (6) scholarships divided between:

- No less than two $1,500 scholarships to a Lebanon County high school senior (other than Valedictorian or Salutatorian) seeking a degree from a four-year college or university. Candidates should have a declared major in a STEM discipline (Science, Technology, Engineering, Math).
- No less than two $1,500 scholarships to a Lebanon County high school senior pursuing a technical certificate/degree beyond the secondary level.

Students considered for these scholarships must

- be a high school senior at one of Lebanon County's public or private schools or the Lebanon County Career and Technology Center,
- demonstrate a desire to bring important high-demand skills back to the region after graduation,
- complete and submit the attached biography, and
- provide your common app essay or if you do not have a common app essay, please submit an essay of no more than 300 words on the topic: "Who is your favorite historical person and why?"

Members of the Foundation Board will select the scholarship recipients from among those submitting applications. The deadline for the receipt of applications is 4 p.m. on Monday, April 3, 2023.

The Lebanon Valley Chamber Foundation hopes this scholarship program will encourage students to not only excel, but to bring their unique talents back to the Lebanon Valley after graduation. Send completed application and essay to kgroh@lvchamber.org or by mail to the Lebanon Valley Chamber Foundation, 989 Quentin Road, Suite 1, Lebanon, PA 17042.

For questions regarding the scholarship application, please email kgroh@lvchamber.org.
